

(c) Alt Art Space, Istanbul

haki (khaki), 2017

Sound installation on a painted stage, Stage : 530cm (length) x 200cm (radius) x 90cm (height), Sound: 5'23"

A poem I wrote about air, flowers and soil, inspired by my friend D's journey from Iran to Greece. D ran away from his hometown in Iran, joined the peshmerga in Iraq, sought asylum in Turkey and flee to Greece. He now sells flowers in Athens.

The recording can be listened from the speaker on the stage. Sound recording available here in Turkish.

